

BEML Observes Vigilance Awareness Week

BEML LIMITED, a premier public sector company under the Ministry of Defence observed the Vigilance Awareness Week at all the units of the company from October 31st to 5th November 2011.

Coinciding with this a special function held at BEML Bangalore Complex held today, Mr Shankar Bidari, IPS, Director General of Police, CID who was the Chief Guest on the occasion released a journal titled 'Vig Kiran' brought out by BEML which contains a compendium of directives and guidelines issued by Central Vigilance Commission, Ministry of Defence, Dept of Public Enterprises, Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Stock Exchange Board. This will facilitate easy access for relevant information for all stakeholders and accomplish the goals of a company in a fair, accountable and transparent manner.

Mr Shankara Bidari, IPS, DGP, CID releasing BEML Vigilance journal 'Vig Kiran'. Also, seen are Mr M Pitchiah, Director(Finance), Mr M Nellaiappan, Director(HR), Mr P R Naik, Director(Defence) and Smt Kavitha Kesthur, Chief Vigilance Officer, BEML

Speaking on the occasion, Mr Shankar Bidari stressed the importance of creating awareness on corrupt-free society and the spirit of nationalisation.

Mr Shankara Bidari, IPS, DGP, CID addressing BEML Officers coinciding with Vigilance Awareness Week celebrated at BEML Bangalore Complex.

Smt Kavitha Kesthur, Chief Vigilance Officer of BEML briefed on Vigilance Awareness Week.

Mr M Pitchiah, Director(Finance), BEML welcomed the gathering. Mr D Ashokan, Chief General Manager, BEML proposed vote of thanks.

Earlier, Mr V RS Natarajan, Chairman & Managing Director inaugurated Vigilance Awareness Week on 31st Oct.2011.

During the week long observations, various programmes like Slogan Competition, Essay Writing and Cartoon/Poster making were organized for employees and executives of the company to bring awareness on the concepts of vigilance.

Bangalore

November 5, 2011